

Veterinary Surgeons

Vets

David started the Isle Veterinary Group Practice in 1990 with wife Cathy and he is a partner in both Practices. In his spare time David likes to participate in Drag Hunting and is heavily involved in the local Point To Point.

Laura - qualified at Bristol University in 2002. In her spare time breeds Norfolk horn sheep and Aberdeen Angus cattle – you may have seen her showing her stock at one of the county shows.

Mark – qualified at Cambridge in 1997. Mark likes to spend his spare time with his young family, and teaching Malcolm – his dog not to eat his lunch from the car.

Simon – qualified at Glasgow University in 2001. Any spare time is spent with his horses and dogs and participating in drag hunting.

Hannah – Having recently joined us she is enjoying meeting new clients and finds time to enjoy riding, running, and rowing.
