

In house services

The Large Animal Unit has the facilities for operations under general anaesthetic, Lameness Work ups, reproductive work including the use of chilled and frozen semen and complete digital evaluation including the standing removal of molars.

Radiography is now completed with high frequency X-ray generators, ultrasound has been upgraded with digital equipment and we have an array of all the necessary equipment to complete almost any equine examination.