

Veterinary Surgeons

Our veterinary team comprises of the Partners, Cathy and Rosanne, assisted by Karen, Ann and Guy.

Cathy Scott graduated from Cambridge Vet School and joined her husband in the practice, opening the small animal practice in 1991. Cathy is interested in all areas of small animal practice but particularly enjoys orthopaedic work. Cathy and David have two children and far too many animal. They are actively involved in the Cambridge University Drag Hounds and Point to Pointing in East Anglia.

Rosanne Smith graduated from Glasgow Vet School. After a spell of 8 years in mixed practice, Rosanne joined Isle Vet Group as a purely small animal vet and joined the partnership in 1994. Rosanne enjoys all areas of practice, especially soft tissue surgery. Rosanne has three children which keep her very busy, along with her chocolate labrador.

Karen Church qualified from Cambridge Vet School and has been with Isle Vets ever since doing a mix of large animal and small animal work. She has two children and a member of the Cambridge and District Riding Club.

Ann Taggert qualified from London and has been with us since 1999. Ann is a successful Golden Retriever breeder as has a keen interest in reproductive medicine.

Guy Poland qualified from Cambridge Vet School. He particularly enjoys feline medicine and dealing with more unusual species of patient.

Kate Read qualified from Cambridge Vet School. She all enjoys all aspect of small animal work, in particular surgery. In her free time she is a keen horse rider.