

Reception Staff

Our reception team is headed by Rebecca, assisted by Shona, Sheena, Katie and Sue. They are kept busy welcoming clients when they arrive and manning the ever ringing phone!

Rebecca Seymour did her work experience with Isle Vets whilst she was at school has been working for us since 2005. Rebecca is a committee member for the Cambridge and District Branch of the riding club. She has ten horses and ponies, two that are home bred with another due in July 2008. She also has four dogs, four cats and a rabbit.

Shona Riatt has been working at Isle Vets for many years and now works on Saturday mornings only. Shona enjoys walking her dogs and is always keen to assist with rehabilitating wildlife that is brought to us.

Sheena Lark joined Isle Vets when the new small animal centre opened.

Katie Hutton also joined Isle Vets when the new small animal centre opened and is married to Simon, one of our large animal vets. Katie is part of the team that runs the Tuesday evening puppy parties.

Sue Youngman joined Isle Vets in October 2007.
