

Welcome to the Isle Veterinary Group

The Isle Veterinary Group is a privately owned practice established in 1989, comprising of small and large animal departments.

We offer the highest level of care to pets, horses and farm animals in and around the Isle of Ely and beyond and pride ourselves in providing our own 24 hour emergency service.

We believe in providing a full professional service, embracing modern techniques and training whilst maintaining a personal touch.